

SOULCARE Confidentiality

Confidentiality

All interactions which take place in a SOULCARE session are considered confidential. This includes your registration email, all interactions with leaders during your session, and any session notes.

Limits to this agreement

1. In some legal proceedings a judge may issue a court order. This would require this counselor to testify in court.
2. If we learn of or believe that there is physical or sexual abuse or neglect of any person under 18 years of age, we must report this information to county child protection services.
3. If we learn of or believe that an elderly person, or disabled person is being abused or neglected, we must file a report with the appropriate state agency that handles elder abuse.
4. If we learn of or believe that you are threatening serious harm to another person, we are obligated to report this. This can be in the form of telling the person who you have threatened, contacting the police or placing you into hospitalization.
5. If there is evidence that you are a danger to yourself and we believe that you are likely to kill yourself unless protective measure are taken, we may be obligated to seek hospitalization for you or to contact family members or others who can help provide protection
6. There may be times when we consult with outside sources about situations or scenarios. In these cases, no personally identifiable information will be used in the discussion. However, certain aspects of our session will be used in order to ensure that we are getting and giving the best assistance possible.
